Since scoring on his debut in 2015 against Scotland, James has always had a hunger for scoring goals and has 37 goals in 69 games for Wales.

The forward followed in the footsteps of his two older brothers and started playing hockey for Taunton Vale. After Leaving school James studied at Cardiff Metropolitan University, where his hockey thrived and following some excellent goal scoring form across multiple seasons, James made his way into the Wales senior team.

After graduating, James joined Brother Tom (England International) at Reading hockey club to have his first taste at premier league hockey. In 2020 following the success of the European Championship James played a season for Royal Beerschot hockey Club in Antwerp, Belgium.

James is currently working as a PE teacher at St Georges Junior school, playing his hockey at Old Georgians Hockey club alongside his two older brothers Tom and Ed.
